

McBride scoops best Annual Report 2016 at the IR Society Best Practice Awards

McBride were the proud winners of the best 2016 Annual Report in the SMALL CAP & AIM category at the recent IR Society Best Practice Awards held in London on 22nd November. This year's awards saw over 170 entries all being scored against criteria based on the Society's guidelines for best practice in investor communications.

The judges complimented McBride for a clear report with a simple business strategy that is well integrated throughout the report. The judges also highlighted the investment case, governance principles and risk assessment as award winning features of the report.

Gyles Brandreth, David Rattigan and Huan Quayle from McBride and Sebastien Dutrieu from IR Magazine